DEFINITIONS

Application Fee

The application fee of $85 is applied toward the processing of the student's application for enrollment at McMillan Academy of law. This fee is non-refundable. If the student is accepted based on the particular application, this is a one-time fee. If the student is rejected based on a particular application, the student may re-apply at a later date but must pay the standard application fee.

Registration Fee

The registration fee is based on the number of credits desired by the student. The fee is calculated by multiplying $25 per unit selected by the student. The student will be required to pay a registration fee each semester during which the student registers for classes. Because each new semester presents new costs in terms of tuition and fees, the student will be required to complete a new enrollment agreement each semester the student wishes to register for classes. The student will receive the newest version of the catalog each semester.

REFUND POLICY

Buyer's Right to Cancel

A student has the right to a full refund of all charges less the amount of any registration fee if the student cancels prior to or on the first day of instruction. In addition, the student may withdraw from a course after instruction has commenced and receive a pro rata refund for the unused portion of the tuition and other refundable charges if the student has completed 60% or less of the instruction. For example, if the student officially withdraws after 6 classes of an 18 class course, and was charged $900 for the course, the student would receive a refund of $600 if the student had paid the $900 in full. In the same withdrawal scenario, involving a student on a payment plan, where the student has paid only $200 for the same $900 course, the student would have an obligation to the Academy for $100 in order to pay the amount owed for the classes attended. All refunds and obligations are calculated as of the date the student files an official add/drop form in the Registrar's office at 4670 Nebo Drive, Suite 200, La Mesa, California, 91941-5230. Refunds will be paid within 30 days of withdrawal.

Three-day Full Refund Period

If an enrollee cancels enrollment within three working days following enrollment and before commencement of classes, there will be a refund of all monies paid with the exception of the application fee. Cancellation of enrollment after three working days but before the commencement of classes will result in forfeiture of the registration fee.

Tuition Refund After Classes Begin

Termination of enrollment after the commencement of classes but before more than 60% of classes have been held, whether or not the enrollee was in attendance, will result in a pro rata tuition refund in conformity with the policy of the Department of Consumer Affairs, Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Information, P.O. Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818. The same tuition refund policy applies to Summer Session and Summer Clinical Programs. Payment of fines that may have been assessed, returned check fees, cost processed to other businesses or agencies and similar transactions are prior obligations to the school and therefore are not refundable.

The above refund policy also applies to students dismissed for cause.

Books and Materials

After purchase, books and other materials are the property of the student. McMillan Academy of Law makes no refunds for these items.

Student Tuition Recovery Fund

The Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) was established by the legislature to protect any California resident who attends a private post-secondary institution from losing money if he or she prepaid tuition and suffered a financial loss as a result of the school's closing, failure to live up to its enrollment agreement, or refusal to pay a court judgment.

To be eligible, a student must be a "California resident" and reside in California at the time the Enrollment Application is signed. Students who are temporarily residing in California for the sole purpose of pursuing an education, specifically those who hold student visas, are not considered to be "California residents." Those who are not California residents are not eligible for protection under and recovery from the Student Tuition Recovery Fund. Further, those students whose entire tuition and fees are paid by a third party organization are not eligible for payments from the STRF nor are the students entitled to a refund for the tuition and fees.

To qualify for STRF reimbursement, a student must file a STRF application within one year of receiving notice from the Bureau that the school is closed. If a student does not receive notice from the Bureau, the student has four years from the date of closure to file the STRF application. If a judgment is obtained, a student must file a STRF application within two years of the final judgment.

Additionally, the student is responsible for paying the state assessment amount for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund. Students that receive tuition from a third-party payer are not eligible for recovery from the Student Tuition Recovery Fund and therefore the student does not have to pay into the fund.

It is important that students keep copies of the Enrollment Application, fee schedules and receipts of all monies paid to McMillan Academy of Law. Questions regarding STRF may be directed to the Department of Consumer Affairs, Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education Information, P.O. Box 980818, West Sacramento, CA 95798-0818. You may also direct your complaints regarding the Academy to the Committee of Bar Examiners, 180 Howard

Street, San Francisco, CA 94105-1639.

GUIDELINES FOR UNACCREDITED LAW SCHOOL RULES DISCLOSURE

(PLEASE READ)

The Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California requires McMillan Academy of Law to make this disclosure according to Guideline 2.3(D) of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules:

The method of instruction at this law school for the Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree program is principally in physical classroom facilities.

Students enrolled in the J.D. degree program at this law school who successfully complete the first year of law study must pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination required by Business and Professions Code § 6060(h) and Rule VIII of the Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in California as part of the requirements to qualify to take the California Bar Examination. A student who passes the First-Year Law Students' Examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive credit for all legal studies completed to the time the examination is passed. A student who does not pass the examination within three (3) administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it must be promptly disqualified from the law school's J.D. degree program. If the dismissed student subsequently passes the examination, the student is eligible for re-enrollment in this law school's J.D. degree program, but will receive credit for only one year of legal study.

Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice in jurisdictions other than California. A student intending to seek admission to practice law in a jurisdiction other than California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

McMillan Academy of Law has met all disclosure requirements.
